Manningham's
'Active For Life'
Boomer Revolution

A new recreation initiative designed to inspire today's modern baby boomer.

Manningham City Council is proud to promote activities to inspire baby boomers to be healthier, more active and enjoy life through a range of fun and challenging activities.

All programs are independent of Council, affordable and easy to join, so take a look at what's on offer as part of the campaign and contact the organisers for details.

Ideas and suggestions for new activities are very welcome. Please contact Manningham Council on 9840 9124.

Woodcraft Manningham

Woodcraft Manningham is a hands-on club with a large, well equipped workshop. The club offers a series of wood working sessions such as woodturning, wood carving, box making and scroll sawing. Learn new skills and produce handmade items that make prized ornaments and useful gifts for friends and family.

When: Weekly sessions
Time: 8.30 am – 12.30 pm
Where: The Old School Building,
Manningham-Templestowe Leisure Centre,
Corner Anderson and Parker streets, Templestowe
Mel Ref. 33 E5

Cost: Annual membership $25
Bookings: Bruce Hensell, 0419 519 191

Back In The Game

Back in the Game provides a safe way for you to play familiar games, with modified equipment, smaller indoor playing area and no physical contact. Activities are chosen to inspire a return to some of the games many played earlier in life such as hockey, volleyball, basketball and tennis. There is no formal competition or commitment – the activities are 'pay as you go' and after the session there is the opportunity to socialise with other participants over morning tea.

When: Every Monday morning
*Please note: The ten week pilot program has been extended until 30 November, 2011.
Time: 10.00 am – 11.30 am
Where: Manningham Donvale Indoor Sports Centre,
360 Springvale Road Doncaster
Cost: Gold coin donation
Bookings: John Higgins, 9842 8551.

Manningham 'Boomerrangos'

Retirement isn't the end of the road – it's the beginning of the journey, and we're looking for retired men and women who share our passion for motorbikes, friendship and coffee breaks. Riding by yourself can be quite lonely, but in a group you're able to reflect on the journey over a bite to eat and there's the potential to make some great friends. There are no membership fees or ongoing meetings; it is simply a group of friends looking to enjoy great day rides together.

- When: Fortnightly rides
- Time: Various times
- Where: Various rides through Hurstbridge, Kinglake, Yarra Glen.
- Cost: Free
- Bookings: Ken on 0417 675 828 or email levikids@bigpond.com
